

Occupational Therapy Advice for Sitting Posture for Handwriting

When your child is taking part in formal writing tasks it is a good idea for them to sit in the best position for writing. This is shown below.

Encourage them to sit centrally to the table, with their chair tucked in. Sitting in this well supported position makes it easier to control the writing tool, reducing the physical effort and encouraging clear writing.

