

In the Spotlight

Name: Chloe

JOB TITLE: RADIOGRAPHER

Qualification: BA Honours Degree in Diagnostic Radiography and Imaging

Study Duration: 3 years intensive study including hospital clinical placements

Subjects studied: osteology, anatomy, physiology, the practice and science of imaging. Personal Professional Development and communication with multidisciplinary teams such as Midwives, Occupational Therapists, Physiotherapists, Operating Department Practitioners.

Responsibilities:

- diagnosing patients and using expert knowledge to report on illnesses and injuries
- assessing patients and their clinical requirements to work out which radiographic techniques to use
- helping with more complex radiological examinations, for example assisting in theatre with stent insertions/urodynamics (bladder function) procedures, orthopaedic procedures

“We do much more than operate an X-ray machine. We know a lot more than people think.”