

What is ideally required is the Trust's SPECIFIC policies for infection control related to gastro-intestinal infections and specifically gall-bladder or biliary infections. This would be a more detailed and focussed document that would guide the clinician as to what to prescribe a given presenting infective illness.

Please find attached the following:

Secondary care adult antimicrobial guidelines for treating Gastrointestinal Intra-abdominal/biliary infections

Control of Multi-Resistant Gram-Negative Bacteria Policies