University Health Board

September 2025

To:

All registered patients of Mount Pleasant Practice and Wye Dean Practice residing at this address

Dear Patient,

Aneurin Bevan University Health Board has received notification that Mount Pleasant Practice and Wye Dean Practice are to become one practice with effect from 16 September 2025 and will be known as Mount Pleasant Practice from that date.

The General Medical Service contracts for both practices are currently held by the same Partnership, Dr A Holtam and Mr H Jones. The doctors and staff at Mount Pleasant Practice and the former Wye Dean Practice are fully committed to ensuring that you continue to receive high quality GP services. You will continue to contact your practice in the same way as you do now, and you will be seen at the same site as before.

Aneurin Bevan University Health Board is supportive of the merger and would like to assure you that there will be no impact on clinical services or opening times, which will continue to be provided from all premises listed below:
